PU-Synthetic leather is created by applying a cover of plastic polyurethane to a base fiber. It more durable and sunlight resistant than animal leather.

PVC-coated polyester is 100% polyester with a smooth poly-vinyl chloride coating on the back and a subtle texture on the front. This polyester is hydrolysis resistant, making it strong and durable.

Woven Polypropylene, also known as Olefin, is strong, fade-resistant, and inherently stain resistant. It's soft, lightfast, and easy to clean because polypropylene has no active dye sites.
